Psalm 78:1–8

New International Version (NIV)

A maskil of Asaph.

- 1 My people, hear my teaching;
listen to the words of my mouth.
- 2 I will open my mouth with a parable;
I will utter hidden things, things from of old—
- 3 things we have heard and known,
things our ancestors have told us.

Psalm 78:1-8

New International Version (NIV)

4 We will not hide them from their descendants; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord, his power, and the wonders he has done.

5 He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our ancestors to teach their children,

Psalm 78:1-8

New International Version (NIV)

6 so the next generation would know them,
even the children yet to be born,
and they in turn would tell their children.

7 Then they would put their trust in God
and would not forget his deeds
but would keep his commands.

Psalm 78:1-8

New International Version (NIV)

8 They would not be like their ancestors—
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
whose hearts were not loyal to God,
whose spirits were not faithful to him.

"I will teach my children and grandchildren God's truths, and let them know about His glorious deeds, His power, and His mighty wonders so that they, too, may learn to know, love, and obey Him."
