Mark 10:17–31

New International Version (NIV)

The Rich and the Kingdom of God

17 As Jesus started on his way, a man ran up to him and fell on his knees before him. “Good teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

18 “Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No one is good—except God alone.

Mark 10:17-31

New International Version (NIV)

21 Jesus looked at him and loved him. “One thing you lack,” he said. “Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

22 At this the man’s face fell. He went away sad, because he had great wealth.

23 Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!”

Mark 10:17-31

New International Version (NIV)

24 The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said again, “Children, how hard it is[b] to enter the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

26 The disciples were even more amazed, and said to each other, “Who then can be saved?”

Mark 10:17-31

New International Version (NIV)

27 Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but not with God; all things are possible with God.”

28 Then Peter spoke up, “We have left everything to follow you!”

29 “Truly I tell you,” Jesus replied, “no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel

Mark 10:17–31

New International Version (NIV)

30 will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age: homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields—along with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. 31 But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

QUESTIONS

Mark 10:17-31

Wealth and riches may take different forms for each one of us. It can be in the form of money, family and connections, education, talents, opportunities, and power. Which is yours—the one that hinders you most from giving yourself fully to God? Pray together with a partner and commit to help one another to follow and walk with Jesus.

QUESTIONS

Mark 10:17-31

Jesus always looked with love at anyone who runs away from Him. The whole book of Hosea is a testament to this. You may know or have encountered a person who has heard the Gospel but “walked away sadly” or is struggling in committing to follow Jesus, even a believer who has lost his/her footing. List down three names who you can pray for. Reach out to follow them up.
