Ezra 3:8–13

New International Version (NIV)

8 In the second month of the second year after their arrival at the house of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Joshua son of Jozadak and the rest of the people (the priests and the Levites and all who had returned from the captivity to Jerusalem) began the work. They appointed Levites twenty years old and older to supervise the building of the house of the Lord.

Ezra 3:8–13

New International Version (NIV)

9 Joshua and his sons and brothers and Kadmiel and his sons (descendants of Hodaviah[a]) and the sons of Henadad and their sons and brothers—all Levites—joined together in supervising those working on the house of God.

10 When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the Lord, the priests in their vestments and with trumpets, and the Levites (the sons of Asaph) with cymbals, took their places to praise the Lord, as prescribed by David king of Israel.

Ezra 3:8–13

New International Version (NIV)

11 With praise and thanksgiving they sang to the Lord:
“He is good;

his love toward Israel endures forever.”

And all the people gave a great shout of praise to the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid. 12 But many of the older priests and Levites and family heads, who had seen the former temple, wept aloud when they saw the foundation of this temple being laid, while many others shouted for joy.

Ezra 3:8–13

New International Version (NIV)

13 No one could distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy from the sound of weeping, because the people made so much noise. And the sound was heard far away.

TAKE HOME PRINCIPLE

"As a believer, I will honor God wholeheartedly by actively supporting my church in advancing His kingdom and building up my spiritual family."

After the Jews returned from exile,
they rebuilt the altar first (vv. 1-7 ).
What did they focus on next?
